Richmond, Va.:

Raving for a long time suffered from the effects of a horrible blood treable, and after resorting to medical skill and other remedies without benegit, I tried "A. B. C. Alterative." I have been entirely restored, and it agjords me pleasure to attest its vir-ues. It is evidently a very great tonic and alterative, and I recommend any suffering from blood trouble, to try it. J. W. ### An Old Rebel on Pensions

A Frankfort (Ky ) dispatch says : "The old rebel, State Senutor William Lindsay, has received a strong protest from "Happy Jack," another old tobel, who is a prominent and worthy citizen of Lincoln county. He protests against the passage of a bill providing a home for old Confederate soldiers in Kentucky on the ground that it would be a dangerous precedent to establish. The home will be a pension, and with pensions "Happy Jack" sees visions of thousands and tens of thousands of crippled, disabled and improunious Confederate soldiers. That other old rebel, Col. E. Polk diers. That other old rebel, Col. E. Polk Johnson, publishes the letter in the Daily Capital, as follows:

"Judge William Lindsay: Dear Sir: For the Lord's sake—and if you have no respect for the Lord, just forus old rebels' sake—don's pass that 'Confederate Association bill.' Why, old man, don't you know what a tendency pecuniary sid of any kind has to disable a man? Has our legislature lost every bit of its good sense? Don't you know that the United States ponsion bills have crippled more federal soldiers than the combined armies of Lee and Jackson, of Hill and Lengstrees of Backner and Albert Johnson, of Joe Johnson, Bragg and Hood, of Price, Van Dorn, Dick Taylor and Kirby Smith? Great Fathers above! man, stop Smith? Great Fathers above! man, stop and think before you further get. Here I am, now, tripping along toward sixty; been out of the rebel army since May 2, 1865; been able to cut cord wood and maul rails every day since, and the very mention of your bill makes me begin to feel on the newest patterns of plain and fancy

"Don't do it, Judge; don't do it. You are out on high grass, and may not be tempted into the wrong pasture, but you surely haven't forgot that little, close boundary of short grass, and the temptations suggested thereby. Don't do it; it will paralyze me and make others like me. Why, look at Dick Warren, a great, the specimen of mankind and the very best of good fellows; has ten handsome children and a lovely wife, all in one little inclosure of short grass with him. He would be tempted to break through and steat if he ever had been a rebel, and if you pass this bill, don't you suppose he will wish he had been a rebel? "Judge, don't do it. Look around you,

Steam Flooring & Planing Mill

Manufacturers of DOOR and WINDOW FRAMES, MOLDINGS, &c.

DOOR and WINDOW FRAMES, MOLDINGS, &c. he has a doctor's certificate of 'disability,' contracted in the service of the best government the world ever saw. Now, you step over there and ask him if that is not so. Why, your bill will cripple the last one of us, Judge, and I don't want to be a cripple. Then is a few years more we will have the sons of veteraus, and there will come up some blear-syed, natchet-laced boy and tell you that be is Happy Jack's boy. 'Happy Jack' had no boy, replies the commissioner, or whoever be may be. Who was your mother and where do you live, > on in that way.

>
> "Judge, don't do it. Think about 'Woodie' > Longmoor, with his leg cut off at the hipjoint. He is taking care of himself. Look across the house at Rudy. Didn't I see him at Emory and Henry with one lag out off until there was just enough left for a knob for his walking stick? Didn't my brother languish and suffer in the same hospital with Rady until his youthful body wasted into a bag of hones? Can't I see his great big blue eyes rolling about in his emaciated cheeks now? These and thousands of others just like them are taking care of themselves, and they don't want to cripple us. For gracious sake, Judge. give us a chance to make an honest living. Why, Jeff Sterrett is getting along the builtest kind, raised a vice boy, General Duke, 'all sitting,' house full of nice children and his little girl is the best fiddler in the States of America. Did you ever see > her draw a bow? "Thinking about those old boys and old times makes me think good things about everybody, even the Yankees. Judge, don't you know we have the cleverest kind of neighbors, who belonged to the Usion army, and who for years after 'that crue! war was over,' had muscles of bark and stomachs like bark mills, and one day that pension bill passed Congress, and before the sun went down a million or two of them lifted up their hands and swore until their fingers grew as long as rye straws and their palms as big as barn doors that they hadn't been able to do a day's work for a long time. A nation of patricts cramped, crushed, crippled by a single act of Congress! Has ever pen, so much mightier than the sword, done more damage? Oughtn't those old soldiers to have swept that Congress from the face of the earth? But, Judge, they couldn't sweep —that Congress crippled them too badly. Ask that big fellow if it didn't.

"Judge, excuse me for writing you this.
I do so with many misgivings. You see, if I write to any of the old boys at all it has to be a man of prominence, because I am the only private left. Why, there is Phil Thompson and leak and my two hysthese. We invite the attention of dealers and consamers to our large stock of CAREFULLY PREPARED COAL of the following varieties:
LYKEN'S VALLEY,
LORBERRY and Wasn't it a fine thing for the Yankees we didn't find out about their debilitated condi-tion just before the surrender? Why, it would have taken but six months more of camp life and 'rebel yell' to have made a finish to them, if they tell the truth, and I suppose they do. But there is one thing curious about their allment-it takes so long to kill! One disease, galloping consumption, never has and never will attack a Union

"Don't do it, Judge, and don't let them
